East West is about taking the best from two stunning cuisines and bringing them together. It sprang from Devinder's passion for proper pizza gained from travels with his family in southern Italy, combined with a lifetime's immersion in the cuisine of Northern India.

Traditional Indian recipes passed down for generations were the starting point for the Eastern flavours – the pickling spices of achari dishes, richly satisfying butter chicken from Delhi, vibrant northern masalas and the tang of Punjabi spices. We hope you enjoy it as much as we do.
